

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

The Print-Collector's Quarterly

PUBLICATION of The Print-Collector's Quarterly, discontinued by the Museum for the duration of the war with Volume VII, Number 4, for December, 1917, will shortly be resumed by Messrs. J. M. Dent and Sons, Ltd., of London, England. The Quarterly will be edited by Mr. Campbell Dodgson, Keeper of Prints and Drawings in the British Museum. Mr. FitzRoy Carrington, Curator of Prints at this Museum, by whom the Quarterly was founded, and who has hitherto conducted it, will become the Honorary American editor. Volume VIII, Number 1, should appear in April. The annual subscription price will be twenty shillings in England, four dollars in America. Subscriptions may be sent to Messrs. J. M. Dent and Sons, Ltd., 10-13 Bedford Street, Covent Garden, London, W. C., England, or to E. Weyhe, sole agent for the United States, 710 Lexington Avenue, New York City.

The Quarterly will remain unchanged in form and in the purpose expressed by its name. A large development of its influence in forming the taste for fine engraving among English-reading people is to be anticipated from the leadership to which the Museum has entrusted it. Since the discontinuance of the Quarterly the Museum has been in almost daily receipt of letters asking in regard to its resumption. They are an earnest of its future success under new auspices.

Wednesday Conferences

IN continuance of the series of Conferences, the following will be given during March:

Mr. Dows Dunham, Assistant Curator of Egyptian Art.

March 2. The Sudanese Pyramid; illustrated by objects recently received from Egypt.

Mrs. Charles H. Hawes.

March 9. The Goddess in Greek Art.

The Conferences begin at half past two o'clock, with the exception of the final Conference by Mrs. Hawes, which will begin at four. It is asked that the audience should be seated at the hour named.

Admission is by ticket, limited to the seating capacity of the gallery. At the opening of the Conference persons without tickets are free to occupy any seats remaining vacant. For tickets address the Secretary of the Museum, enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope for each of the Conferences which it is desired to hear. Applications are filed in the order of their receipt, and tickets are issued for each ten days in advance.

Notes

AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE TRUSTEES, held January 20, Mr. T. Jefferson Coolidge was elected a member of the Board to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Theodore N. Vail.

A CATALOGUE OF THE PAINTINGS in the Museum Collection is in press and will shortly be issued. The Catalogue meets a need long felt for a full list of the pictures in the possession of the Museum. The present publication is in a measure a provisional substitute for the critical monograph which the Museum hopes eventually to issue.

AN EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS BY SEVEN CANADIAN ARTISTS—Messrs. Frank Carmichael, Lawren Harris, A. Y. Jackson, F. H. Johnston, Arthur Lismer, J. E. H. MacDonald, and Tom Thomson—was held in the Renaissance Court from December 12 to January 2. The paintings are being shown in several American cities.

AN EXHIBITION OF THE WORK OF ANDERS ZORN was opened in the Renaissance Court on January 14 and continued through February 6. The exhibition contained 113 etchings and included 7 oil portraits. The etchings were fully representative of the artist and included his best plates, among them his masterly nudes.

AT THE REQUEST OF THE MUSEUM the Copley Society has arranged an exhibition of the work of former pupils of the Museum School in the Renaissance Court. The exhibition opened on February 10 and will continue until March 6. The School is well known to have exerted a wide influence in American art during the forty-four years of its life. The opportunity to review its achievement will be welcome to its friends.

THE ISSUE OF THE PRESENT BULLETIN has been delayed by the difficulty of reproducing the pictures composing the Album of poets. The Tosa artist displayed the utmost fertility of fancy and delicacy of hand in his minute variations upon a closely limited theme. While much of the special charm of his work is necessarily lost in any reproduction, enough of the drawings remains in their present dress to give an idea of the refinement of the traditions which they carefully follow.

MR. HANFORD L. STORY, Registrar of the Museum, has been appointed Field Assistant in the work of the Harvard University-Museum of Fine Arts Egyptian Expedition, and left Boston January 16 for Egypt. The duties are not new to Mr. Story, who was in charge under Dr. Reisner of the excavations that brought to light the massive cedar sarcophagus of the Middle Empire, shortly to be placed on exhibition in the Egyptian galleries.

A CONFERENCE on Art and Music by the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs was held in the Lecture Hall of the Museum on the afternoon of Wednesday, January 19. The program included an introductory talk by the Director of the Museum.

THE APPOINTMENT OF MR. CARRINGTON, Curator of Prints at this Museum, as Honorary Curator of Prints at the Maryland Institute in Baltimore and at the Rhode Island School of Design in Providence, was noted in the last Bulletin. Mr. Carrington has since been appointed to the same advisory office by the Detroit Institute of Fine Arts. The development of an intelligent interest in prints throughout the country was one of the objects aimed at in the appointment of Mr. Carrington to his duties in Boston. The new opportunities of coöperation with other museums possessing or planning print collections are steps in the fulfillment of this purpose.

Acquisitions, November 5, 1920, to January 6, 1921

Madonna

Italian

Classical Art. Greek red-figured kylix Purchased.
Silver coin of Epidaurus, cir. 300 B. C. Purchased.

Chinese and Japanese Art. Painting of the Chiu Ch'êng Palace, attributed to Li Chao-tao. Chinese, T'ang dynasty Gift of Denman W. Ross.

Rubbing from the monument erected in Tokyo, Japan, in memory of Ernest F. Fenollosa . . . . . Gift of Yamanaka and Company.

Eight coins, Chinese, Ch'ing dynasty . . . Gift of T. Bowyer Campbell, S. S. J. E.

Paintings. Two Saints, Tuscan, fifteenth century. Two paintings, each representing a prophet with two angels, Tuscan, fifteenth century. Three Saints, Umbrian School, fifteenth century. Madonna, Child and Saints, Siennese School, fourteenth century. Three Saints, Umbrian School, fifteenth century . . . . . Gift of Mrs. Thomas O. Richardson.

Western Art. Wall paper from the Professor Young house, Hanover, N. H., French, early nineteenth century . . . . . Gift of Dartmouth College.
Indian basket . . . . . Gift of Mrs. Elizabeth S. V. Hosmer.

Bronze statue: Boy with Sea Shell, by H. H. Kitson . . . . . Gift of David P. Kimball.

Silver spout cup, American, eighteenth century; made by B. Green . . . . . Gift of Miss Sarah S. Perkins and Mrs. Elizabeth Perkins Cabot.

Wrought iron grille, Italian, seventeenth century. Three manuscript pages with paintings, Persian, thirteenth century. Fragment of enameled fourteenth century Arabian glass from Fostat . . . . . Gift of Denman W. Ross.

Covered silver dish, French, Empire style . . . . . Gift of Mrs. George Linder.

Silver dish, French, early nineteenth century . . . . . Gift of Miss M. H. Jewell.

Watch in silver case, French, cir. 1850 . . . . . Gift of Miss Alice E. Hawley.

Western Art: Textiles. Chantilly black lace shawl. Chantilly black lace parasol cover . . . . . Gift of Miss C. T. Fitch.

Chinese embroidered cape . . . . . Gift of Mrs. Thomas A. Harris.

Two pieces of Turkish brocade. Fragment of a Persian rug, sixteenth century. Piece of Spanish brocade, fifteenth century . . . . . Gift of Denman W. Ross.